

CRC STUDY ASSISTANCE ITEM COVER LETTER

For vTMF submission use only. Please complete all boxes and use 'N/A' if not applicable.

|                                                       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|-------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Study Name                                            | TRIllogy-5                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| Compound Name/Identifier                              | JNJ-79635322                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Protocol ID                                           | 79635322MMY3002                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Item Name                                             | Study Assistance Items                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| Item Purpose/Description                              | Items will be provided to enrolled patients to help support study retention. Materials are: blanket, water bottle, and tote bag.                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Intended Audience/Recipient(Check all that apply) | <input type="checkbox"/> Potential Patients / General Public or Community<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Enrolled Patients<input type="checkbox"/> J&J Study HCPs<input type="checkbox"/> Site Staff<input type="checkbox"/> External HCPs<input type="checkbox"/> Study Team or CRO |
| Print/Digital/Both                                    | <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Print<input type="checkbox"/> Digital<input type="checkbox"/> Both                                                                                                                                                                                               |
| Study Overview vTMF #                                 | VTMF-24224273                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Any additional relevant information                   | Total cost per patient is $36.50                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |

Blanket

- The blanket is supplied to keep patient comfortable during long visits. The item is non-branded.
- Size: 60 " x 0.38 " x 50 "
- Cost: $19.95
- Material: 100% polyester
- Colors: Black (Bk), Royal (Ryl)

Water Bottle

- The water bottle is supplied to support hydration as there are 24-hour urine collections required. The item is non-branded.
- Size: 2.5 " x 2.5 " x 9.5 "
- Cost: $11.57
- Material: Eastman Tritan™ Copolyester
- Colors: Clear

Tote Bag

- The study assistance item is provided to participants to assist in transporting patient items to and from study clinic visits. The item is non-branded.
- Size: 6 " x 11 " x 13 "
- Cost: $4.98 each
- Material: 60% Recycled Pre-Consumer Cotton + 40% Recycled Post-Consumer Po
- Colors: Multi-Colored (Mt)